The End of Country
Seamus McGraw

For years, friends and neighbors in this small farming town scratched out a living. Then came the knock on the door, the stranger on the porch. “Nice land you’ve got here,” he’d start, and he’d end with the offer to make them rich.

SEAMUS MCGRaw

“Deeply personal, sometimes moving, sometimes funny, The End of Country lays out the promise and the perils faced not just by the people of one small Pennsylvania town but by our whole nation.” —ROBERT F. KENNEDY, JR.
